The 157th Message on Monday 1/13/2014 @ 3:35 A.M. (The 28th apparition)

The Visionary (V) was in pain and was praying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy and oil, similar to the oil which oozes from the Icon of the Blessed Virgin Mary, was oozing from her hands .

The room was filled with a bright light indicating that the Blessed Mother is going to appear to give her a message. The V was enveloped by the light and was glowing as she began to pray and beseech the Virgin Mary: “ O’ Virgin my Mother, beseech your Son to come to save and help this world. The whole world is in great difficulty. O’ Virgin help this people and bring them closer to your Son.”

The Virgin Mary responded:” My esteemed daughter, you are asking and beseeching Me to help this world and to plead with my Son to come and help this world; don’t ask this thing of Me again, these people are far removed from my Son. Have I not been asking and begging and showing myself to so many people so that they return to my Son?

Was it not my Son who gave His Life and Blood and His Body to be crucified on the cross for the salvation of this people? Many people are far removed, far removed, far removed from my Son. My Son came in peace and He is all Love. How can He come to a world that is without peace and love? My Son is experiencing and bearing a great sorrow and agony.

Every mother becomes frustrated when she sees that her children are in trouble; what am I to say for all that I am enduring in my Heart and in my Body, since I am the Mother of all this people? I am the Intercessor between this people and my Son. I desire that this people return to my Son. I desire that they come to hear and to listen to me to enable me to bring them closer to my Son.

My daughter, you are bearing many sufferings, and the sins of this people are upon your shoulders for the sake of salvation and to bring this people closer. (The V is a victim soul)

The Visionary’s Vision of Eternity (Heaven, Hell and Purgatory) Friday 1/17/2014 @3:45 A.M. Message 158th

In the year of our Lord 2014 on Friday, January 17, 2014 @ 3:45 A.M., the Visionary (V) was carried away in the spirit and was taken to eternity where she was shown a vision of Heaven, Hell and Purgatory. She was accompanied by the Blessed Virgin Mary and escorted by a multitude of angels lead by the Archangel Michael. The following is an account of what the V reported during her experience in eternity:

The V was sitting in front of the Icon of the Virgin Mary praying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, when she found herself in space following, at a few feet distance, behind the Blessed Virgin Mary and surrounded by angels lead by the Archangel Michael. The V, overwhelmed by what she was experiencing, prayed and said: ‘ O’ Virgin to where are you leading me and where are you taking me; does this mean that I am saved from the earth? ’

HEAVEN

The V was first taken to Heaven, which she describes as being an all-white landscape with a majestic beauty, that is difficult to articulate words that can describe it. Among what she saw were an array of flowers and greenery in a scenery that has no comparison to what is on earth. There she smelled a fragrant scent that captivates the senses, and saw multitudes of angels of different sizes who were hovering like butterflies. She also saw people who were glowing and clothed with bright white garments and gliding in mid air.

The V was overwhelmed with what she was experiencing and was impressed with the beauty and radiance of the angels whom she described as being joyful and smiling all the time. She was especially impressed with the Archangel Michael and was thinking to herself ‘ what a magnificent angel is this ‘; aware of the V’s thoughts, the Virgin Mary answered:“ this is the leader of the angels who is always beside me ”. Seeing the beauty of Heaven and reflecting on the misery and difficulties of life on earth, the V exclaimed and said to the Virgin Mary:‘ how distant we are from this beauty? Please Let me stay here !’ The Virgin Mary responded:“ these people (on earth) are busy with the things of this earth .”

HELL

The V, accompanied by the Virgin Mary and the angelic escort, continued their journey in eternity and stopped near a big and dark hole which emitted flames of fire. The V was terrified and said to the Virgin Mary: ‘What is this, are you going to throw me here?’

The Virgin Mary answered: “The people say there is no hell fire!”

The V looked into the dark and flaming hole, and to her horror, saw people there who appeared to be floating without balance in the midst of these flames . The V saw lay people and religious people in the flames of hell. She was shocked when she saw religious people there, since she used to think that religious people don’t go to hell!. Knowing her thoughts, the Virgin Mary answered: “ Don’t think that only lay people are here; there are here patriarchs, monks, bishops, priests and nuns and many others ; those who are not bringing this world to my Son ”.

Throughout this Experience, the V was praying and pleading: ‘ O’ Virgin save, save this world ‘.

PURGATORY

The V was then taken to see Purgatory. According to the V, the people she saw there were kept in a gloomy, semi-dark place. They were separated from each other and were confined in a separate cell-like compartments. The V asked the Virgin Mary ‘why is it that each one of them is in such a solitary confinement and separated from the others?’

The Virgin Mary answered: “ They are in Purgatory awaiting the mercy of God to descend upon them.”

In a manner that she can not understand or explain , the V Suddenly found herself back in her room ,on the sofa , and facing the Icon of the Virgin Mary, as if though she has not left the room!.

The V has no idea of how long this experience lasted .

Since that day and as a result of what she especially saw in hell, the V’s pain has increased and sadness has descended upon her, causing her to withdraw to her room, with no interest to see or communicate with anyone. This is due to her pain and anguish, resulting from the realization that those in hell are going to remain there forever. This is despite her awareness that those who are suffering in hell are there because they objectively abused their free will , by making the wrong choices and decisions during their life on the earth .

The 159th Message on Saturday 2/23/2014 @ 4:05 A.M. (The 29th Apparition)

The Visionary (V) was praying the holy rosary in front of the Icon of the Virgin Mary, when a display of multi-color lights started shining in the room , and a halo of light appeared and began to expand until the Blessed Virgin Mary emerged from the light . Her hands were open and She stood at about two feet above the floor. She was dressed in blue and white.

The V went and knelt in front of the Blessed Mother with tears flowing from her eyes.

The Virgin Mary spoke to the V and said: “ My esteemed daughter, I am feeling your pain and suffering. Do not listen to those who spin gossip around. Your reward will increase even more with my Son and His Father. Despite the coming of my Son and His crucifixion on the Cross , this people have not stopped from spreading gossip.

The focus of things that pertain to life on this earth is only one; the salvation of the human being. This salvation is through my Son Jesus Christ.

Faith is in the words of my Son; through obedience to His teachings and imitation of His virtues. This is life and there is no other life beside it . The pride of the human being will cause him to fall into perdition.

Come and return to my Son; despite all the things that are happening on this earth this people are not waking up. When will this people wake up and return to my Son? Come and return to my Son; He will save you.

The faith and purity of the human being stand before everything else. One last precious advise ; faith, the purity of character and love are first and foremost and come before everything else .”

The light dimmed slowly and the Virgin Mary disappeared.

The 160th Message on Thursday 3/6/2014 @ 2:45 A.M.

The Visionary (V) was praying the holy rosary in front of the Icon , when she heard a buzz in her ears , which is the sign that the Blessed Virgin Mary wants to give her a message . The V knelt in front of the Icon and the Virgin Mary spoke and gave her the following message:

“My esteemed daughter, why are this people preparing to fast? What is the benefit of this fasting if it does not originate from the depth of one’s being? Let them first purify and instill love in their hearts, and be united hand in hand with each other.

My Son does not want such a fasting from food and drink that is devoid from faith, purity and peace. My children, I have been calling and beseeching you to return, to make this fasting more acceptable with my Son.

Am I not saying that when the waters flow, they don’t return to their original purity? It is true that the waters will return to their original courses in most cases, but they don’t always remain suitable for drinking! Briefly, briefly, briefly, don’t inflict a wound on someone and say that what happened was good.

The events which the people are witnessing are not big events.

There will be bigger events and tribulations that will be coming upon this people, to enable them to wake up from their sleep. When I say that events and tribulations will be coming; they will come. They will continue coming in a manner that is similar to what is happening in other countries and places. But many people are, are, are sleeping and don’t seem to be alert to this matter.”

The 161st Message on Saturday 3/15/2014 @ 4:45 A.M.

The Visionary (V) was praying in front of the Icon, when she heard a buzz in her ears, signaling that the Blessed Virgin Mary wants to give her a message. The V knelt and the Virgin Mary spoke and gave her the following message:

“My children, who are the children of the Truth, do not allow the difficulties and sufferings of this earth to overcome you. My Son, He will strengthen you. He is able to reward you beyond any limit and measure.

Ask and pray to enable Him to have mercy upon you, in order that the days of sufferings and tribulations will not be prolonged. Wait, and you will witness what kind of end the evil one will suffer. The time of your hardships will not be prolonged, and the accumulation of the pains upon you will not last for long.

An hour is coming to end all the difficulties, sufferings and burdens of humanity. My children, come to my Son and He will be your recompense.

Sing, pray, read and write; bear all tribulations by these means. Henceforth, you will see and live eternal life. An even greater thing will be experienced by you in the Kingdom of Heaven; this is the peace that will be bestowed upon you from my Son and His Father.

In Heaven, you will not experience day and night; it will all be light, light, light that has no comparison. You will experience peace and rest.

I ask from all of you, to cleanse your hearts from all impure things. A last advice and a precious jewel:

My Son asks of you to have faith, purity of character and love.

Since faith and love have primacy over everything else.”

The 162nd Message on Wednesday 3/26/2014 @ 3:30 A.M. (Apparition no. 30)

The Visionary (V) was praying the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, when a bright light shone in the room, and the Blessed Virgin Mary emerged from a halo of light and gave the V the following message :

“My esteemed daughter, I don’t know what else to say and what to speak and how to beseech; when will this people return to my Son?

Didn’t my Son offer Himself for this world? How extensive were His Sufferings, hardships and the nailing upon the Cross, which He bore and endured, without speaking or complaining. All of this was for the salvation of this world.

The difficulties of this age in which you are living, cannot be compared to the glory of my Son, which He will show you and bestow it upon you in the Kingdom of Heaven. The light, light, light of Heaven can not be found or compared to what is on this earth where you dwell.”

The light slowly dimmed and the Virgin Mary disappeared.

Message No. 163 on Tuesday 4/1/2014 @ 2:45 A.M.

The Visionary was praying the rosary in front of the Icon, when she heard a buzz in her ears, which is the signal that the Blessed Virgin Mary wants to give her a message. She knelt prayerfully and the blessed Mother gave her the following message:

“My esteemed daughter, the worldly of this earth are not able to discern what they are doing. My daughter, you will not be able to bring this world back to my Son. As to the thing which you and those around you are doing, the blessings of The Lord will be with you.

It is not appropriate that trifle matters are transmitted by the people of this earth, and delivered to another person in a distorted manner.

My daughter, when will this world wake up from this sleep and open up, to enable my Son to enlighten them. This world is in darkness. I beg of them to open their doors, to enable Him to shine His light upon them. The light which He will bestow upon them has no comparison.”

Message no. 165 on Saturday 4/19/2014 @ 4:45 A.M.

The Visionary was praying the rosary when the Blessed Mother spoke and gave her the following message:

“My esteemed daughter, the suffering of your cross is heavy. Endure it, endure it, endure it; and you are enduring it happily. This day pertains to the crucifixion of The King of Kings. I am aware of your immense suffering, but don’t think about it, I am with you.

May the Resurrection of my Son, like His other memorial Resurrections (past Easters), be for peace, love and Happiness.

There is no more peace and love. This world is like I said and continue to say, is in deep sleep; when will they return so that peace and love can prevail in this world?”
