The Visionary was praying the rosary in front of the Icon of the Virgin Mary, when the Blessed Mother spoke to her and gave her the following message:

“My esteemed daughter, how is it that this people are happy on this earth? Their happiness should be in Heaven, with The Heavenly Father and His Son. The happiness of this earth has no substance. Like I said, every human being will be leaving the things of this earth on this earth. The human being was made from earth and unto earth will return.

Enough! Think and return to my Son. True happiness is in The Kingdom of Heaven. Return, return, return; how do you expect my Son to return to this earth, when there is no love to be found? Love is removed from this earth.”
